Dear Madam/Sir:

I, Anna L. Ubben, on behalf of myself submit my claim based on the fact that it is reasonable to assume Circuit City would accept a bona fide offer of purchase before it would allow the company to go into bankruptcy. There was no reasonable basis to assume that Circuit City would not reestablish negotiations with a bona fide purchaser, had they denied the purchase at first, before they would neglect their responsibilities their stockholders.

The amount of the claim is based on costs of the stock and expenses and interest as calculated by parties the court deemed appropriately qualified to do.

I have attached several copies of items needed to identify this claim with previous documents required.

Sincerely,

Anna L. Ubben
